I congratulate the annual staff for their hard work and sincere dedication in making the 1976-77 production of Clay Co. Highlights a success. This yearbook will serve as a class record as long as you live.

I sincerely hope the school program at Clay County High has prepared each senior to meet the tasks and problems which are inevitable. You have had the opportunity to gain knowledge and training. Discipline, one of the most important things C.C.H.S. has offered, perhaps is the least appreciated. May we always remember that we cannot achieve lasting success until we learn to discipline ourselves. Discipline is a narrow path to success.

We the editors of the 1977 Clay Co. Hilites hope you enjoy this yearbook as much as we have enjoyed preparing it for you. In this yearbook we hope to portray the events that are meaningful to each and every student at CCHS.

A very special thanks to Mrs. Raynell Feiner, our sponsor, Mr. Bobby Magee for pictures and his time, Mr. Paul Dick for his understanding and patience, and any others who helped bring this yearbook from a dream to a reality.

Alma Mater

On the southwest side of Ashland
Stands our school, Clay County High.
Through its portals pass daily
Those with hopes, ambitions high.
Truth and knowledge we are seeking
For the game of life to play.
All the things for better living
We are learning everyday.
So, here's to you, our Alma Mater
May you through the storm break free
And in sorrow or in triumph
We will look to thee.

heart that we are given to the wind and are scattered.*
